

Loftus Poultry Run 8 miles

An icy and cold day welcomed the runners to the 26th annual Loftus Poultry Run. This was meant to be run over Christmas/New Year time, but the snow called it off. Full credit to Loftus and Whitby AC who, despite the same weather kept the race on. These were not ideal running conditions, pretty bad to be honest but the snow added to this race's Christmas theme, and some runners even turned up in Christmas fancy dress which was nice to see.

Last years winner was also this year's winner and that man was New Marske star Ricky Stevenson, with a great time of 42.26. 2nd place was a fellow New Marske man Andrew Wiles, with a time of 43.00
Darren Bilton was the 3rd man across the line, also the 1st over 40 Vet, with a time of 43.00 which is a 14 second improvement on last year (2008)

The First Marsh House man was Phil Teece who was 16th overall and also the first over 50 Vet. He got a time of 51.08, along with a Turkey and a joint of Beef for his efforts!! Next was Andy Marr, who came home in 52.26.

3rd Marsh House man was Tom Gale, who delivered a time of 55.17, just behind him was Andy Davies who came in at 55.41. The next Marsh House man was Gary Dack and his time was 57.06 he was closely followed by Peter Greenan who came in at 58.30

The first Marsh House Lady was Alison Carter who came home in 63.54, a 70 second improvement of last year. On form Jane Raper was the 2nd Marsh House Lady with a time of 65.24 closely followed by Kay Stokes who got a time of 66.41
